The disclosures made in this application are to both Fidelity Life Assurance Company Limited (the Life Insurer) and to nib. Even if any applicant has previously applied for insurance with the Life Insurer and/or nib, you must provide in this application all the information that is required to satisfy the duty of disclosure described below. The Life Insurer and nib are separate insurers and each will consider the application separately. Neither the Life Insurer nor nib will be bound by disclosures made to either of them in the past. If either the Life Insurer or nib seeks additional information as part of its separate underwriting process, that information does not become knowledge of the other insurer.

Your Duty of Disclosure for the Life to be Insured and Policy Owner(s)

Before you enter a contract of insurance you have a duty to disclose to the Life Insurer every matter that is relevant to the Life Insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of insurance and if so on what terms. You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the Life Insurer that occur after signing this application and before your contract of insurance commences. You also have the same duty to disclose those matters to the Life Insurer before you apply to increase or reinstate your insurance. If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the Life Insurer may cancel your policy from inception, or at its discretion, alter the amounts and terms of the insurance or decline to consider any claim/s. If the Life Insurer cancels your policy from inception, all premiums paid may be forfeited.
